FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1869.

The Policy of the New Mayor.

THIS morning the oath of office was administered to the Hon Daniel M. Fox, and he entered upon his duties as Mayor of Philadelphia. As is usual in such cases, he delivered an inaugural address, which will be found elsewhere. In that address we see so much to heartily commend that we earnestly congratulate him on the promises he makes of a policy which, if carried out, will secure to him the commendation of every class of citizens. He carefully eschews politics, and devotes himself entirely to the affairs of the city which are of a kind to merit his official attention. If we can take the sentiments he utters as a guide to the administrative rule during his term, we are relieved by the pledge that the city will not be injured by any substitution of the deputy sheriffs of Mr. Peter Lyle for the present police force, but she will have a class of sober, respectful, and diligent officers of whom we may be proud. This Mr. Fox positively guarantees us, and we believe that he will carry out his professions. His remarks in regard to the increase of crime are sadly true. The city needs a thorough purgation of ruffianism, and that purgation must come from the Mayor's office. The policy which he favors with regard to finances also meets with our cordial approbation. It is preëminently the duty of Councils to economize; but when, after all just reductions, there remain heavy expenses, the tax rate should be such as to meet the expense and not necessitate a yet larger payment in the future by funding annual deficiencies. If Mr. Fox adopts in good faith and with active energy the reforms he favors, he will receive for himself universal commendation. Irrespective of party, he will in all proper actions receive from our hands, and we feel convinced that he will from the great mass of the Republican party, most cordial support in the performance of his duty and full credit for every worthy deed.

It may not be inappropriate to say a word in regard to the outgoing Mayor. Mr. Morton McMichael leaves the position he has filled for three years with the hearty good feeling of every class of our people, for the courtesy, zeal, and honesty with which he has filled the office. He has faithfully discharged the duties of the post. He has presided over the city as her representative with great credit to her and himself. Genial and warm-hearted, he has made the visits of those to whom Philadelphia has extended her freedom a rare pleasure, while to the heavier labors of his office he has carried a thorough acquaintance with the needs of our city and an unimpeachable honesty. In retiring to private life he has both the respect and the affection of those whose executive he has been.

The Frankness of Dimmick and the Reticence of Randall.

WE announced yesterday that the Hon. Samuel J. Randall had been doing the Thirteenth and Fifteenth Streets Pasenger Railway Company the kindness to frank their calls for meetings of the stockholders. As everybody who has been accused recently of abusing the franking privilege has rushed forthwith into print with an explanation, we naturally expected Mr. Randall to do the same. We have not yet, however, heard from the First District Representative on the subject.

This reticence of Mr. Randall has a sinister look, when we peruse the statement made by the firm of "Dimmick & Co.," of New York, who were recently detected in the act of distributing the circulars of their publishing concern under the frank of Congressman Lincoln. A more artless document has never fallen under our notice. It appears that "Dimmick & Co." were connected with a political organization by which Mr. Lincoln's frank had been in constant use. When the recent campaign closed, a large number of blank envelopes were still on hand, and each of them bore the frank of Mr. Lincoln. "Dimmick & Co." thought it a pity to waste these magical envelopes, and, moreover, theirs "was a business that increased rather than diminished the postal revenue, their publications being sent in a large degree through the mails, and every circular sent tending to increase the demand and benefit the department." For this reason "Dimmick & Co." think they "certainly must claim exemption from the serious charges made by" Mr. Lincoln. If the same principle were to be applied to the business of every publishing house in the country, we might, of course, expect the post-office revenues to take such rapid strides by way of increase that the heavy deficiency would disappear, and a handsome yearly surplus take its place! A more consummate specimen of unblushing impudence we have never encountered. Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives, there is but one way in which you can flank such enterprising firms as that of "Dimmick & Co."—abolish the franking abuses by abolishing the franking privilege in toto.

The Lincoln Monument.

IN an article a few days ago on the general subject of monument building, we expressed a doubt as to whether the memorial to Mr. Lincoln, which it was proposed to erect in this city would be completed during the present generation. We are gratified at the information that we were in error on this point, that the monument is in course of construction, and that it is likely to prove a credit to the city as a work of art. We have not desired to convey the idea that we are opposed to monuments, but we think that they are too often commenced unadvisedly by a few persons, who fail to receive the support and encouragement of the community at large, for the simple reason that there is no general interest in such enterprises. No more appropriate ornaments for our public grounds and edifices can be found than monuments to the great men of the nation or State, provided that they have genuine artistic merit to commend them. It too often happens, however, as in the case of the Washington National Monument, that such structures are commenced in haste, without counting the cost, their projectors forgetting the important fact that others are not as enthusiastic as themselves. With regard to the Lincoln monument in this city, we are only solicitous that it shall, for the credit of Philadelphia, be put up within a reasonable time, and that, when completed, it shall be such a tribute to a great man's memory as we need not be ashamed of. The gentlemen who have the matter in hand are, we believe, actuated by a desire to do their whole duty in the premises. What has already been accomplished towards the completion of the Lincoln monument the following letter will explain:—

To the Editors of The Evening Telegraph:—I am happy to state that your article on "Monument Building," a few days ago, was incorrect as regards the Lincoln monument. One of our citizens, who has just returned from Europe, saw while in Rome the completed model by Randolph Rogers. It was then ready for shipment to the foundry at Munich, where it is to be cast in bronze. It is said to be the best likeness of the martyred Lincoln that has yet been made. Photographs of it have been seen by many of our citizens, who are delighted with it as a likeness and as a work of art.

JAMES L. CLAGHORN.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC Mrs. Scott-Siddons will have a benefit this evening, when she will appear as "Juliet" in Shakespeare's tragedy of Romeo and Juliet. Mrs. Siddons has been steadily winning her way to public favor since she has been in this city, and we hope that a full house this evening will give her an assurance that her efforts are appreciated.

AT THE WALNUT the drama of The Orange Girl and the farce of Up for the Holidays continue to attract crowded houses. Matinees will be given to day and to-morrow.

AT THE CHESNUT grand New Year's day performances will be given this afternoon and evening by the circus troupe. The engagement of the troupe will conclude to-morrow evening.

AT THE ARCH Daly's drama of A Flash of Lightning will be performed this evening

AT THE THEATRE COMIQUE Miss Susan Galton will appear this evening in Offenbach's operetta of A Marriage by Lanterns. Dibdin's ballad opera of The Waterman will also be performed. A matinee to-morrow.

AT THE AMERICAN an attractive New Year's entertainment will be given this evening. Matinees to-day and to-morrow.

MCEVOY'S NEW "HIBERNICON," now on exhibition at Concert Hall, is well worth seeing. A matinee to-morrow.

CARL SENTZ' and Mark Hassler's Orchestra will give the "Children's Symphony" to-morrow afternoon, at Musical Fund Hall.

THE PHILADELPHIA PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY is an association of musicians for the purpose of giving performances of the best music. Four concerts at the Academy of Music are announced, and three public rehearsals before each concert at Horticultural Hall. The first public rehearsal will be given this afternoon at 3½ o'clock. Information about the society can be obtained of the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Getze, at Boner & Co.'s music store, No. 1102 Chesnut street.

Let us sing a song, ere we be too late,
About getting through with sixty-eight.
We've come to the close of another year,

'Twas a prosperous year, and pleasantly passed,
But its closing days are here at last;
Trade's sometimes been brisk and sometimes slack,
But we've always had clothes upon our backs.

But we'll tell it to all folks, far and near,
That the greatest wonder of all the year
Is how ROCKHILL & WILSON continue to keep
Such excellent clothing, so wondrous cheap.

ROCKHILL & WILSON sell clothes so fine
For the New Year, eighteen sixty-nine,
Through the winter's cold and the summer's heat,
At their Big Brown Store on Chesnut street.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU!!
AND GOOD CLOTHES FOR YOU!!
AT
MARVELLOUSLY LOW PRICES FROM YOU!

MARSHALL'S ELIXIR.

Headache—Dyspepsia—Costiveness.

If you suffer with Headache try MARSHALL'S ELIXIR, and be convinced that although other remedies have failed to cure you, this will give you instant and permanent relief.

If by over-excitement and fatigue your nerves have become so weakened that Headache admonishes you something more dangerous may happen, such as Palsy, Dimness of Sight, and other alarming nervous affections, then Marshall's Elixir, by giving tone and strength to your system, restores you to perfect health.

Whenever food which should be digested remains in the stomach, causing pain and uneasiness for the want of that principle which would render it easy of digestion, then by using Marshall's Elixir you will supply this deficiency and prevent its recurrence, and so be radically cured of Dyspepsia.

The stomach being thus cleansed from an unhealthy to a healthy condition, costiveness and the other attendant disorders of the bowels are of necessity prevented.

Price of Marshall's Elixir, $1 00 per bottle.

EXUBERANT HEALTH is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a STAMINAL MEDICINE, i. e., it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and, as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseam, in the hope of rivalling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the GREAT MEDICAL SUCCESS OF THE PRESENT CENTURY, and it is quite certain that NO proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over five millions a year.

MODERN HUMORISTS.—Nasby, whose orthography is daily becoming more peculiar and mixed up, has determined to go to "Noo York," where "Democracy flurishes like a green ba tree" Mark Twain is now personating the 'Wickedest Man" in the Butcher Region, Nevada, where he is successfully stripping John Allen of all his notoriety. George Francis Train is by this time startling Omaumaus with his Fenatic harangues, in which sententiousness and nonsense are judiciously mixed. Alter is daily playing practical (and benevolent) jokes on the community, by selling the very best of coal at the most moderate of rates. His large yard at No. 937 N. Ninth street is the scene of constant activity.

FINE FRENCH CALF BOOTS AND GAITERS.—The man who has never experienced the pleasure of wearing a pair of boots made by William H. Helweg, is to some extent an object of commiseration. We speak knowingly, having worn Helweg's boots for years. Their comfort, however, is not their only recommendation, as they are made of the best material and in the very best manner Helweg will not employ an incompetent workman; therefore his work is always first-class. His store and factory is at No. 535 Arch Street, next to the corner of Sixth.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC ADVOCATE.—"My wife, from a six years' previous use of a Wheeler & Wilson Machine, came to the use of a Grover & Baker with reluctance. But in a few weeks prejudice vanished admiration succeeded, and now the GROVER & BAKER has no more enthusiastic advocate than she. The simplicity of its construction, the facility with which its use is acquired, the beauty, strength, and elasticity of its stitch, and its adaptability to all kinds of work, are qualities which do not all belong at once to any other machine."—Letter from Professor Henshaw, of Williston Seminary.

A HACKING COUGH is one of the most distressing as well as dangerous forms of cough one can be afflicted with. Its continuous action fatigues and irritates the lungs, and thus engenders consumption. Upham's Fresh Meat Cure will cure the cough, soothe the irritated bronchia, and give tone and vigor to the lungs and whole system.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & COWDEN, No. 602 Arch street.

HEALTH AND WEALTH.—Health depends upon our keeping our systems in proper tone. We often need the aid of tonics to do so. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters," according to the opinion of our best and most successful Medical Practitioners, are the desideratum so long sought after by the profession. Try them and be convinced. Sold by Druggists.

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silverware in the city Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American Western watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

SKIN DISEASES.—What form of disease is more annoying than that of the skin, with its itching, stinging, smarting, its ugly red pimples, blotchy eruptions, and loathsome lchorous desquamations Happily, Hieskell's Tetter Ointment is a sovereign remedy for every form of skin disease, making a radical cure in every case. Sold 50 cents per box Sent by mail for 60 cents. Johnston Holloway & Cowden.

PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS EATING IT: so with Clothing, the proof of its quality is by its durability: and the fact of it coming from CHARLES STOKES & Co.'s is proof positive that you will be perfectly satisfied with the QUALITY, STYLE, and PRICE.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE
FOR ANY HOUSE TO GET THE PRICES DOWN AS LOW as we are now selling all our CLOTHING, and the REASON for it can be very easily seen. An appraisement of the stock was made under direction of the EXECUTOR, and then it was determined to sell it at ONCE to make a quick settlement of the accounts of the former Firm.
To do this THE PRICES WERE ALL PUT DOWN, are that we GUARANTEE them fully TEN PER CENT. LOWER THAN THE LOWEST ELSEWHERE, OR GOODS TAKEN BACK AND CASH PAID OVER AGAIN WHEN SHOWN TO BE OTHERWISE.
It will be remembered that our Style, Make and Finish is FAR BETTER than ordinary Ready-Made Clothing. Our large facilities always enable us to SELL CHEAPER THAN OTHER HOUSES; and now, under these special circumstances, it can be readily seen that this is THE opportunity to lay in a full supply.
We have still a very large stock (at least $150,000 worth of Goods), and freshly supplied every day by new lots, as we are making up all the piece-goods we had on hand. As before announced, we continue to allow those whom it suits best to make selections and pay in instalments until all is paid up.

GENERAL GRANT.

He Visits Girard College—His Reception This Afternoon—The Programme of the Committee on Reception.

Yesterday afternoon General Grant paid a visit to Girard College, in company with Augustus Heaton, Esq., a member of the Union League, and one of the Directors of the College. The visit was kept very quiet, and there were but a few members of the Board of Directors at the College when the distinguished visitor arrived, about half-past 4 o'clock. His visit was the more auspicious and gratifying in character in consequence of yesterday being the day of awarding premiums to meritorious pupils at the College, which is invariably a marked and joyous event with the pupils.

General Grant was received by the President of the College, William H. Allen, LL. D., by whom he was escorted through the different class-rooms and introduced to the several teachers individually. He inquired as to the method of discipline and tuition in the institution, and expressed himself as much gratified therewith. He then entered the chapel of the College, where the pupils were assembled, and was formally introduced to them and welcomed to the institution by President Allen, in the following language:—

SPEECH OF PRESIDENT ALLEN.

President Allen, on introducing the General, said:—Boys, you have read of the deeds of the distinguished man now before you during the war, and your hearts have swelled with emotion at his glorious triumphs. There is no living man you would rather see than him—he who fought it out on that line during the war, and he who has become a hero in peace. (Three cheers were now given for General Grant.)

President Allen, addressing the little hero, said:—General Grant, allow me to extend to you a hearty welcome to this, the home of orphans—many who were made so by the late war. This is the home of the officers, teachers, and of the boys, all of whom are patriotic. More than a hundred boys whose homes were within these precincts, and who received their education here, fought the battles of our country under your command, and not a few of them shed their life-blood. When these boys who are now before you become men, I pledge you, General, that they will fight as bravely as the hundred did who were in the army, and die as nobly as many of them died.

GENERAL GRANT'S REPLY.

"Mr. President Allen:—I am very much pleased to have the opportunity of visiting the work over which you preside. I feel that it is doing a good that I can scarcely appreciate. When I was a boy I read with pleasure of Stephen Girard and of the munificent bequest made in his will, and am delighted to see that his wishes have been fulfilled. Boys, I hope you may always have as able a President as you now have."

The General then took his seat, and the juveniles sang "We'll Rally Round the Flag, Boys," at the conclusion of which the distinguished visitor bade the assembled adieu, and, in company with Mr. Heaton, left the college building and drove down Corinthian avenue, amidst the huzzas of a large number of persons who had congregated around the carriage.

THE GENERAL TAKES A LOOK AT FLORA TEMPLE.

In company with two or three friends, the General visited Chesnut Hill during the day, for the purpose of taking a look at the celebrated trotting mare Flora Temple and colt, they being stabled at that place.

AT THE CONTINENTAL.

In the evening General Grant remained in his rooms at the Continental Hotel, exchanging congratulations with the numerous friends who continued to call upon him to a late hour. Among those who paid him their respects were General and Mrs. George G. Meade, General and Mrs. D. H. Rucker, Commodore Steedman, United States Navy, Mr. John Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Mayor Morton Michael, and others.

THE COMMITTEE ON RECEPTION.

Last evening the sub-committee on reception met and adopted a programme which was approved by the general committee this morning, at which R. P. Gillingham, Esq., presided. A. M. Fox, Esq., chairman of the sub-committee, reported that that committee had fixed 2 o'clock this afternoon as the time for the reception in Independence Hall, by General Grant, of the people of Philadelphia, that special arrangements had been perfected for the admission and exit of the visitors; that the reception would continue one hour; that the chairman of the committee, Mr. Gillingham, should at half-past 1 o'clock proceed to the Continental Hotel and receive and conduct the distinguished guest to Independence Hall; that there would be a private collation between three and four o'clock, given in Common Council chamber, at which none but Councilmen will be present.

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS.

At 4 o'clock the General will leave Councils and proceed to the residence of George H. Stuart, Esq., where he will take dinner and receive the friends and family of Mr. Stuart.

The evening will be spent at the residence of John Rice, Esq., where the next President will take supper.

To-morrow the General will devote the entire day to his family, in visiting friends and places of interest.

On Sunday he will honor one of our churches, but which it is not yet definitely known, Holy Trinity, at West Rittenhouse Square, is spoken of.

THE APPEARANCE OF INDEPENDENCE HALL.

Independence Hall this morning presented a neat and inviting appearance. The repairs which it has been undergoing for some time had been completed. Steps have been placed at the rear widow on Independence Square, so that the file of visitors can pass out. The General will occupy a position in the centre of the room, and will stand facing south, so that each of the multitude can have a chance to easily see him and shake his hand. A special detail of police will be on hand to preserve order and keep up the line.

THE MAYORALTY.

THE PRELIMINARIES.

Shortly before 12 to-day, the members of Select Council assembled for organization preparatory for their meeting in joint convention with the members of Common Council, in the chamber of the latter branch, to instal the Mayor-elect, Daniel M. Fox, Esq. There was a full attendance of the members, and the pleasant New-Year's-Day humor and good feeling which prevailed was in no wise affected by the gloomy disagreeableness without.

The chamber was called to order by President William S. Stokeley, and the roll being called,

Mr. Hutchinson Kay presented a message from Mayor McMichael, in which certain ordinances were approved.

There being a dearth of business, Messenger Johnson occupied himself solely with keeping out the crowd which pressed the door, until the adjournment of the members into the other chamber.

THE JOINT CONVENTION.

Common Council having been organized, President Marcer in the chair, some unfinished business was taken up, and mechanically gone through with. The gallery and lobby of the chamber were jammed with spectators, many persons being unable to gain entrance.

The committee appointed to wait upon the Mayor, and Mayor elect, reporting, Common Council received Select Council, the members of the Common Branch standing.

President Stokley, taking his seat at the side of President Marcer, called the joint assembly to order, and announced that in conformity with the acts of Assembly the Mayor elect would take the oath of office prescribed by law in the presence of Councils, and administered by one of the Judges of the Court.

The members of the Joint Convention arose as Judges Allison and Ludlow, Mayor McMichael and Mayor-elect, Daniel M. Fox, and the Committee of Councils entered.

The Rev. Dr. Kunkleman then read a passage from the Scriptures, commencing, "The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof," after which he delivered the following

PRAYER.

Thou art the Lord, the High and Lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, and whose name is holy. Before the mountains were brought forth Thou hadst formed the earth. From everlasting to everlasting Thou art God. The heavens declare Thy glory, and the firmament showeth Thy handiwork. Day after day uttereth speech, and night showeth knowledge. Thou art the universal sovereign, and Thy power extendeth to the remotest parts of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth. The earth is Thine, the fullness thereof and they that do dwell therein. Thou art our Creator and Preserver, and in Thee do all living creatures in heaven, or on the earth, or in the sea, live and have their being. Thou art the source of all wisdom, goodness and mercy. Thou art the Father of our Lord that thou hast given for the propitiation of our sins, but not for this only, but for the sins of the whole world.

Thou hast bestowed upon us great blessings for which we call upon our souls to praise and magnify Thy name. We thank Thee that Thou didst make this a land of liberty, and that Thou didst afford here a home for the oppressed of all nations; that Thou didst give protection to our fathers and bring them safe to this Western shore, and secure to them, their wives and children, in this glorious land, liberty forever. We thank Thee that Thou didst carry our fathers safe and sustained them through the severe struggle of the Revolution; that Thou didst give them wisdom in counsel and power in the day of battle, and the courage to declare and the ability to maintain their independence. We thank Thee for all the blessings Thou hast granted in our early history, and for saving us from dangers within and without, and that Thou didst make for us a place of influence and power among the nations of the earth. May we be a nation whose God is the Lord, and may all our resources, influence, and power be devoted to Thy glory on earth, to the enlightment, Christianization, and civilization of all the inhabitants thereof.

To this end give wisdom to the President of the United States and to his Cabinet, to the Governors of all the States and [illegible] Congress and to thereof, to the chief magistrate of the city, to the Legislature, judges of all our courts, and to all who are in authority. May they be endowed with righteousness and [illegible] all our institutions; restrain vice and [illegible]ity; give us peace, happiness, and prosperity. May the arts and [illegible] be protected, may agriculture and manufactures be carried forward, and mercantile and commercial and all other legitimate pursuits be blessed. Bless him who has been chosen by the people to the chief magistracy of this city with wisdom, justice, and mercy. May he have the confidence of those with whom he is associated. Make prosperous the mercantile pursuits of all our citizens; may all our universities, colleges, and institutions of public learning and all schools be fostered by Thee.

Out of Thy abundant fullness provide for all the wants of our citizens; preserve them from pestilence and famine, the fire and sword, and may the administration to govern the city be guided by Thy high and holy spirit, and may Thy blessed Word be the source of all law and justice. Remember in mercy and grown with Thy righteous blessing him who retires from the duties of this office to-day. And unto the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit shall be all the praise and glory, the power and the dominion, world without end. Amen.

THE OATH OF OFFICE

was then administered to the Mayor-elect by the Hon. Joseph Allison, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, after which Mayor Fox proceeded to deliver his inaugural address, as follows:—

MAYOR FOX'S INAUGURAL.

Gentlemen of the Select and Common Councils—Having taken the oath of office, I deem it due to you and to my fellow-citizens that I should avail myself of this occasion to state some of the features which I intend shall mark my administration. Being myself determined to devote all my ability and energy to the faithful discharge of the duties of the Mayoralty, I shall expect from every person occupying official position under me a rigid and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective positions. Crime seems to be on the increase and to be assuming frightful proportions: the citizen has a right to look to a well-organized and efficient police for the safety of his person and protection of his property. To ensure this shall be my object in the selection and government of the police force. Strict obedience to orders, rigid sobriety, a polite and courteous department, and unremitting vigilance in the discharge of duty, shall be required by me from every one holding police appointment; if any officer fail in either of these requirements he will immediately give place to a better man. The peace of the city shall be preserved: and, as far as in me lies, every citizen shall be made to feel that he is living in a community where life and property are secure. The financial condition of the city shall receive my careful consideration. Our debt is large, and with the public improvements already projected, it is likely to be greatly increased. The interest on this debt, with the current expenditures of the city government, makes such an aggregate that Councils have been deterred on more than one occasion from levying a sufficient tax to meet the outlay. Deficiencies are of yearly occurrence, and the authorities have had recourse to the suicidal policy of funding these deficiencies. This state of things, so contrary to all our ideas of good government, ought not to continue. Our current yearly expenditures of all kinds should be met by a sufficient yearly income, and to do this the city government must be administered on the strictest principles of retrenchment and economy. To effect these objects shall be my constant aim, and when the tax-payer knows that the money collected from him is wisely and judiciously expended, and for purposes beneficial to our great city and conducive to its welfare, his contribution will be more cheerfully paid. As a matter of justice to those who have administered the municipal affairs, as well as to those elected to succeed them, I would suggest that a careful examination of the financial condition of the city should be at once directed by Councils.

Whatever measures will promote the various manufacturing, commercial and other interests of our city shall receive my cordial support.

I will unite with Councils in all judicious measures for opening new thoroughfares, in grading and paving those already opened, and in securing for the inhabitants of the new districts an abundant supply of gas and water. In this way the building interests of our city will be properly fostered and our rapidly increasing population have an ample supply of comfortable homes.

The cleansing of the streets of our city is a matter of the deepest consideration, for upon it may depend the health of our citizens, and there is no object to which the tax-payer more willingly contributes. The present arrangement, it is obvious to every one, falls far short of the public necessities, and to whatever cause this failure may be owing, whether to defects of system or to the inefficiency of those who have undertaken the contract, it is necessary that a remedy shall be promptly applied, and that this work, so indispensable to the health and comfort of our people, shall be thoroughly performed.

With you, gentlemen of the Select and Common Councils, it is my desire to cultivate the most kindly relations. We are mutually charged with great and important duties, upon the performance of which will materially depend the public welfare. Let us so work together in our respective spheres that the people of Philadelphia may have no occasion to regret their selections, and so that when we retire from our respective positions we may feel that we have conscientiously discharged our trusts. Having adverted to matters of paramount consideration, I shall not attempt, at this time, to call your attention to particular objects of municipal legislation. It is made the duty of the Mayor to communicate to Councils, from time to time, such matters as he may deem of value for their consideration, and this duty I will, at all times, cheerfully perform.

And now humbly looking to an All-wise Providence for His aid and guidance, and feeling deeply grateful to my fellow-citizens for the high trust they have reposed in me, I will only further add that I shall faithfully devote myself during my term of office to the public service, with the hope that I will have the aid and moral support of every good citizen, irrespective of party difference, in making my administration beneficial to our beloved city.

After the delivery the Mayor was congratulated by the members of Select and Common Council, after which the Convention adjourned.

Each body met in its own chamber and passed a concurrent resolution of thanks to the Rev. J. A. Kunkelman, when both adjourned sine die.

LARCENY OF A DEED AND MONEY.—Yesterday a man named Henry Beemer, accompanied by a woman, called at the house of a German lady, at Cherry street and the Frankford road, and solicited boarding. They were accommodated, and shown to a room on one of the upper floors. Subsequently Deemer came down stairs and represented that he was going out to make a purchase for his wife. In a few moments the woman went out, and the occupant of the house, on repairing to her room, found the bureau-drawer broken open and ransacked. A deed of a property, $400 in bonds, and $480 in greenbacks were stolen. Information of the robbery was left at the Nineteenth Ward Station House, and Deemer was soon after taken into custody. He had a hearing before Alderman Neill, and was held to bail to answer.

DEATH OF A MANUFACTURER AND BUILDER.—Mr. Allen J. Hubbs, for many years a manufacturer and dealer in furniture on N. Second street, near Coates, died on Sunday, 27th inst., at his residence, near Frankford, aged fifty-three years. He not only had attained a high reputation in his business, but had greatability for building, and his means and talents so applied can be traced back to the pioneers of handsome improvements upon North Fifth, Seventh, Franklin, Broad, and West Arch streets, where now stand the results of his conceptions and successful undertakings. His close attention to business impaired his health a few years back, and from the effects of which he never recovered.

THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON have been tendered us by the managers of the German Hospital, in the shape of a beautiful bouquet. We commend this institution to all our readers at this time of the year.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Old Hospital at Broad and Cherry Streets and Contents Destroyed—Loss Quarter of a Million.

About a quarter past 11 o'clock last night smoke was discovered issuing from the extensive grain and produce forwarding warehouse at the corner of Broad and Cherry streets. The alarm was promptly sounded and the firemen were soon on the ground, but in consequence of the dense smoke occasioned by the burning of tar, which was stored in a portion of the cellar, they labored under great disadvantage.

The structure had a front of 116 feet on [illegible] street, and 128 feet on Cherry street. It was three stories high, and principally of brick, with the exception of the [illegible] on Broad street, which was partly [illegible]. The building was erected by the [illegible] Railroad Company years ago, and was used as their depot. It subsequently fell into the hands of commission merchants, and during the war it was leased by the United States Government and occupied as an army hospital. It had especial advantages for this service, being considered by many surgeons superior to some of the buildings erected expressly for that purpose. After serving its term of usefulness as an hospital it was again turned over to the merchant service.

The interior of the building is completely burned out, and nothing remains but the walls. It cost $65,000 to build, and the railroad company estimate their loss at about $50,000, which is fully insured in their own funds set apart for the insurance of their properties. James R. Moorhead & Co. leased the building and sub-let to other firms, as follows:—Etting & Co., J. P. Perot & Brother, M. Geisselman, Jr., & Co., D. Snelmire & Co., Steen & Cookman, A. J. Andrews, Mr. Steel, and General Bodine, the Flour Inspector. These gentlemen, who are all engaged in the commission business, occupied offices on the first and second floors front, while the rear portion was used as the warehouse.

In the cellar were stored grain, oats, wheat, and a small number of kegs of tar. The fire originated near where the tar was stored, at the extreme rear end of the building on Cherry street, and burned very rapidly. Had it not been for the storage of 1000 barrels of whisky on the third floor, the fire might have been extinguished before such a great loss had been incurred. The intense heat took effect on the barrels of liquors, and the fluid ran down the hatchways, thus adding vigor to the fire below.

On the first floor was stored flour and feed, second floor feed and hops, and third floor the whisky. The contents might be summed up as follows:—1000 barrels of whisky, 1500 barrels of flour, 500 tons of feed, 5000 bushels of oats, 1000 bushels of wheat, 250 bales of hops, and a lot of cloverseed, fruit, and other produce. This property belonged, in some instances, to the occupants, while a great portion of it was on consignment. The stock is a total loss. The safes in the building were opened this morning, and the contents, valuable books and papers, were found secure. Messrs. J. R. Moorhead & Co. suffer a loss of $15,000, which is fully insured in the Agency of Samuel R. Hilt. Etting & Co. lose $30,000, insured in the Agency of Snell & Newbold.

Perot & Bro. were fortunate enough not to have any stock on hand, and their loss will consequently be light. The office furniture, of course, is a total wreck.

Geiselman & Co.'s loss is put down at $12,000; insured for $10,000 in the agency of Mr. John Wilson, Jr.

Mr. Andrews' loss is estimated at $8000; insured for $6000 in the agency of Boswell & Son.

The whisky belonged to Mr. Steel, and his loss is estimated at $35,000; fully insured.

The companies suffering the heaviest losses are:—Royal, $20,000; Liverpool and London, $15,000; North America, $15,000; North British, $15,000. The other losses fall upon city, New York, New England, and other companies. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The last parties to leave the structure were the superintendent, warehouseman, and two draymen. They left at 7 o'clock, and at that time there were no indications whatever of fire. When the firemen arrived the building was perfectly secure. The total loss, including building, is estimated at a quarter of a million dollars.

The surrounding property was for a time in imminent danger of destruction, but the herculean labors of the firemen prevented the spread of the flames. A row of dwellings in a small court in the rear of the burning building was at times on fire, but the flames were speedily extinguished.

Great distress was occasioned among the residents upon Juniper street and other small streets in the neighborhood. Numbers of the people moved their furniture and effects into the street. The people had generally retired for the night when the fire broke out, and the excitement and alarm at being roused by such a summons may be left to the imagination.

The Columbia House, belonging to John Hertzler, it was feared at one time would be devoured by the flames, but the firemen having gained admission to the roof, thus prevented the fire from communicating.

The unfortunate residents of the vicinity who had moved their furniture, etc., out of doors, received no further damage than their severe wetting and fright. The Columbia House was greatly damaged by water. It is insured in the Fire Association.

The light from the burning building illumined the heavens in every direction, and could be seen for miles around.

This morning the ruins were still smouldering, and several fire companies were in attendance.

The Empire Hook and Ladder Company, while working at the fire, lost two of its ladders. They were crushed by the falling of a wall.

THE RECEPTION.—At half-past one o'clock R. P. Gillingham, Esq., repaired to the Continental Hotel, and having sent his card to the General, was admitted to his apartments. The General signified his readiness to accompany him, and both then went to the carriage in waiting, which immediately drove opposite the main entrance to Independence hall.

Here an immense throng of people, notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather, was congregated. An aisle from the street to the Hall was formed by the police, and up this the General and Mr. Gillingham passed, the crowd cheering lustily for the distinguished hero.

Entering the hall, he was received by the members of Councils with hat in hand. He was was assigned a position in the centre of the room, when Mr. Gillingham introduced General Grant to ex-Mayor McMichael, and he, in turn, introduced the hero to Mayor Fox, who, in a few words, tendered to General Grant the hospitalities of the city.

The concourse were then admitted, and as they passed through the hall shook the General by the hand.

RESIGNATIONS.—Chief of Detectives John Lamon, Alderman Beitler, magistrate at the Central Station, and William C. Haines, Clerk to the Mayor, tendered their resignations this morning.

STOLE A WATCH.—A young man named James Shaw, has been committed by Alderman Godbou for the larceny of a watch from a store on Eighth street.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH,
Friday, Jan. 1, 1869.

There was no meeting at the Stock Board this morning, and business was almost entirely suspended, the Commercial Exchange, banks, banking houses, and most of the stores being closed.

—The New York Herald this morning says:—

"The interest of the day centred in the Money market and funds were again dealt in like the ordinary securities of the Stock Exchange. The course of the leading rate followed the line of curve, with its greatest depression at the close of banking hours. In the forenoon money was stringent. Borrowers went upon the street early through an apprehension that it would be dangerous to postpone getting what they needed. Money being freely offered at high rates, the demand was satisfied toward noon, while others, deeming it more prudent to wait, omitted their search until the afternoon. The market was thus very deceptive about the middle of the day. Between two and three o'clock there was a decided 'squeeze,' and many accounts were not made up until 4 o'clock. The chances refused to lend beyond what they could possibly help, and the heavier stock houses contributed all they could to make their balances large for the close of the year. Outside of the ordinary business pride which stimulate these firms to have a plethoric bank account on the last day, they were solicited by the banks themselves to make their surpluses as large as possible—a request which they could not very well refuse in view of the fact that the banks are accustomed to certify their checks daily for sums far above what are on deposit. Many again were under the impression that the quarterly statements would be made up to-day and that after clearing house time money would be easy. The eventual demand from these, as well as the causes above enumerated, united to make the stringency very severe just about three o'clock. The more anxious borrowers were bidding from three eighths to one-half of one per cent. per day in this period, but the demand was generally estimated at one-quarter of one per cent."

COLFAX.

The Speaker and Mr. Samuel Bowles.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Times:—I have just seen in your paper of Tuesday a letter, signed by George H. [illegible], in regard to the recent arrest and treatment of Mr. Bowles, in which he says—"I have never seen him, or even heard of him, except as a man who had been following Hon. Schuyler Colfax about for two or three years," etc.

It may be in accordance with Mr. Butler's idea of gentlemanly propriety to drag my name into his article, that he might pervert the friendship known to exist between Mr. Bowles and myself into a fling to be thrown into his face. But the fact that he has done so justifies me in asking this brief space in your columns, to say that Mr. Bowles accompanied me to the Pacific slope and to the Rocky Mountains, on my urgent and repeated invitations, tendered to him because I desired to enjoy his company as a gentleman and a friend. Respectfully yours,

TERRORISM.

The Truth About the Troubles in Arkansas—The Union Men Driven to Arms.

The New York Tribune of this morning says:—The Hon. Thomas Boles, Representative from the Third district of Arkansas, says that the reports which Eastern newspapers have published, have been sent by agents of the Associated Press, who are either Rebels or working in the Rebel interest, and that the Associated Press would not transmit a telegram in the interest of Union men. These reports falsely represent the militia as predatory, prowling bands, composed of negroes, and governed by irresponsible persons, whose business it is to devastate the State, plundering and murdering as they go. This is all Rebel falsehood. The truth is as follows:—In August, September, and October last, about twenty leading Republicans of the State were either murdered or severely wounded. Among the victims were the Hon. James Hinds, the Hon. A. M. Johnson, Captain Mason, the Hon. Joseph Brooks, and the Hon. Stephen Wheeler. In addition to these, over 200 colored men were brutally murdered for political reasons. Notwithstanding these outrages were known throughout the State, the agents of the Associated Press did not give the facts to the public, nor did the special correspondent of the Memphis Avalanche have a word to say on the subject, except in the case of the murder of the Hon. Joseph Hinds and the wounding of the Hon. Joseph Brooks, which was grossly misrepresented. Let it be remembered that previous to calling out the militia not a single case of retaliation on the part of the Union men had even been charged. The murderers in many cases were known, and were allowed to live in perfect security in the communities in which the outrages were committed. If attempts were made to deal with them by the civil law the officers were overpowered, killed, or driven off by the Rebel Democracy. The most notorious of these assassins rode over the country making speeches by invitation, in which they boasted of their outrages. In every part of the State leading Rebels were continually counselling opposition to the State government and the laws made under it. Governor Clayton's office was daily besieged by refugees begging protection from the State in their rights under its laws. Thus besieged, Governor Clayton made use of the means in his hands to ascertain the truth, and when fully convinced that civil law could not be enforced in these counties, he declared martial law and called out the militia, in which he was sustained by the unanimous vote of the Legislature. The militia first sent to the field into actual service were all white men, most of whom had seen service in the United States volunteer army. These were attacked by an organized band in Sevier county, one of their number was killed, and several wounded. After this occurrence, if Governor Clayton had not organized the colored refugees into the militia force, Mr. Boles would, he says, have been surprised. Governor Clayton was unwilling to call out the militia during the canvass, fearing that it might be misconstrued into an electioneering scheme, and therefore he long bore the discredit of a government which did not protect its citizens, and consented only when all other hope of good order had failed. After having been thus goaded to desperation, the Union men have finally resolved to have peace at all hazards. They propose to go just far enough with the militia to attain this end, and will withdraw the militia as soon as they can be safe in so doing. The Union men are not influenced in this move by malice. Their only aim is the enforcement of the laws which guarantee equal protection to all persons.

BARBARISM.

The "Young Christians" of Wilmington Endorse the Whipping Post.

The Wilmington, Del., Commercial of last evening says:—

The question "Should the Whipping Post be Abolished?' was debated by the Young Men's Christian Association of St. Paul's M. E. Church, last evening. William T. Airich and Joseph L. Topham (the latter from Baltimore) took the affirmative, and Lewis H. Foulk and John Hare, Jr., the negative. It was thought that the best arguments had been made in favor of the negative, and the question was thus decided. The same disputants will debate the question again three weeks from now.

TWITCHELL.

The prisoner is stunned, paralyzed, confused. He is arrested and taken off by the officers of the law. Then comes the great point of the Commonwealth, "How came that blood upon your shirt?" "Got it in carrying in the body." "Oh, no! you didn't have it on then!" "I can't tell you how it came there, then." There seems to be a strange fatality about this." Counsel cannot explain to me how that blood got on my shirt; they cannot account for the murder of my mother-in-law; I can be of no aid to myself; therefore I do not want them." He knew nothing of scientific theories; he was bewildered. Now, gentlemen, this is the prisoner's story; is there anything in the Commonwealth's case to contradict it? I think I can show you that this is perfectly consistent with the facts and with the theory of his innocence. Now it is well known that Mrs. Hill carried large sums of money about her person. There is the motive for the murder. No money is found upon or about the prisoner, and he no opportunity to conceal it had he had it. Then they say this poker did the deed, and they cling to that pet theory, for if it is true some one who must have been familiar with the house found the poker, and that man must have been George Twitchell. This is the greatest mistake the Commonwealth has made. We have shown you that had this poker been used upon Mrs. Hill's skull it would have been battered and bent, and would have borne unmistakable evidence of it. Do we find any such upon it? We find a smear of blood upon it, is that strange? The poker was found lying under her head in the pool of blood. Is that strange there should be blood upon it? There is one gray hair upon it. Is it not perfectly natural that it should have got there by its being thrust under her head. This is nonsense to argue away a man's life from such trifles as these. The murderer took his weapon away with him, and, as "Lady Macbeth" with the sleeping grooms, they left George Twitchell's weapon stained with blood beneath their victim, in order to throw the suspicion upon him. I wondered in this trial if I hadn't lost my senses. It was thrown into my teeth that I had convicted four men upon evidence like this, and therefore this prisoner should be hung. I did not convict them—infallible facts, a just Court, and wise jury convicted them—I did not. But in each one of those cases there was one all-important, vital fact; but here there is the absence of that, there is no motive, and therefore you must acquit.

You are told that I had that head taken up. I did so to see these wounds, to study them, for I had to get at the facts and truths of this case. On that head I found straight cuts, running this way and that way, as though the man making them were changing position and going all about her. But it occurred to me that a man would not move thus about her body, but that a swinging instrument like a dipsy, with a conical weight, could have made these different wounds without the striker changing his position. I found that the poker did not do it, and someone must have done it, and some one must have been there who took it away with him. But I found neither it nor the money upon the prisoner, and thereof turned from George Twitchell, for he did not answer. Gentlemen, to try this case upon the theory that the poker did this is to try it upon a falsehood. I have studied this closely. I have experimented, and I have proven to you that it could not have been done by the poker, and if you do not so find you show that you have not hearkened to the evidence. But the Commonwealth loves its pet theory and clings to it, pertinaciously clings to error and trample upon the truth. You may cast off truth, out it will surely come back to you; you may crush truth, bury it, but most surely in three days an angel will come and will roll the stone from the mouth of its sepulchre. Now a great cry is made over the supposition that the dogs were locked up, and therefore could not make an alarm. Who tells you that the dogs were in Mrs. Hill's room? Oh! but the Commonwealth argues that it was their custom to be there at that time, and, therefore, they were there; but they also argue that it was the custom of Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell to be in bed at half-past eight or nine o'clock, and therefore on this night they were not there. Take from a man the chance you would give a dog, and what becomes of your reasoning?

In regard to this door of the dining-room, that little tell-tale spot of blood shows beyond a doubt that the door was fastened, and that it had been fastened to prevent George S. Twitchell from hearing the noise they were about to make, as they anticipated. And the prisoner tells you this was done while he was in bed; and is this not possible? Is it not probable? And you are asked to set aside these facts, and sacrifice this man because somebody must be convicted when a murder is committed.

Now, gentlemen, another fact from which the Commonwealth's officers ask you to draw an inference, is that the prisoner made threats against the deceased. It is a very important thing for me to sit in judgment upon my fellow-beings, and I shall dwell upon the character of Joseph Gilbert but briefly; but I say that when men come forward and swear they would not believe a witness under oath, it is extremely dangerous to rely upon evidence coming tainted through such a channel. I honor human friendship; I love the man who will stand by his friend in the darkest hour of his trial and agony. The man who offered himself as a pledge, even unto death, that his friend might be allowed to see his wife before his execution; that man has left a holy name that will live in the human heart for ages after the name of the tyrant who slew his friend has been forgotten. And I could not help making this comparison as I looked upon Gilbert at the elbow of the District Attorney, and then upon young McCully beside the prisoner in the dock. For God's sake let us leave Gilbert. If George Twitchell is to be destroyed, let it be through honest evidence, and not by Gilbert's treachery to Twitchell, which means truthfulness to no man.

Now, then, the last remaining and great point upon which the Commonwealth will linger, is the blood upon the prisoner's clothing. If it was not for this there would be no evidence whatever against him. These sprinkles are the things; they tell, it is said. Why, gentlemen, if you take drops of ink on the end of your finger and flirt half of it on a piece of paper you will make two hundred and thirty-six sprinkled spots visible to the naked eye. Then may not the prisoner have got forty-five upon him without having come in contact with the discharge from a severed artery? We must hang upon such evidence as that! Oh, no! human life is more valuable than that. Then they say his vest was bloody, and he hadn't it on when he carried the body in. He did have it on. The vest was a low-cut one, buttoned low down, and the Commonwealth's witnesses say his coat was buttoned up close. Then they could not have seen it. The officer did not see it until he put on his coat up stairs, and therefore he concludes he did not have it on before this. As to this shirt, men from our colleges, men from the highest places, tell you that just such spots may have got upon it by the flirting of bloody fingers or of bloody garments.

Here the Court took an hour's recess.

A Blast on Fisk and Bowles.

From the Anti-Slavery Standard.

The New York journals are wasting a great deal of excellent indignation on Mr. Fisk, for the course he took in the matter of Bowles, of the Springfield Republican. When we remember the abuse and insolence lavished by Mr. Bowles, from his coward's castle, on every true man for the last fifteen years, we think such an offender has nothing to complain of. He has only been paid in his own coin. The combatants seem about equally matched; though, to be sure, Mr. Fisk, a new beginner, cannot expect fully to equal Mr. Bowles, who is a veteran in this fine art.

If Mr. Bowles had recalled George Thomson's faithful dealing with him, when that gentleman and his friends were mobbed in Springfield seventeen years ago—and the scores of times since that he has done his utmost to poison the mind of Western Massachusetts against the best men in the State, he might have used his prison hours in profitable, if penitential, meditations—a much better employment than whimpering.

The Springfield Republican, like the Boston Advertiser, has belonged, in times past, to a class of journalists noted for abusing those men whose personal unpopularity made it safe, and sometimes profitable, to abuse them. For once it has miscalculated. W. P.

STROUDSBURG.

The Trial of the Alleged Brodhead Murderers.

The Brodhead Murder.

STROUDSBURG, Dec. 31.—Samuel Dreker delivered his closing plea for the Commonwealth last evening, before an immense crowd of spectators. It was a masterly plea, and was listened to with close attention through the three hours and a half of its delivery. This morning, for the defense, D. H. Lee delivered a plea of short duration, followed on the same side by J. H. Storm, who defended his points ably. The court-room was crowded but quiet. Hon. C. Barnett followed, still on the prisoner's side, in a very able argument for the defense, till the Court adjourned at 1 o'clock. Mr. Barnett closed his plea in the afternoon, and was followed by Mr. William Davis, who closed for the Commonwealth. The prisoners have held up their heads thus far through the trial with a boldness that seems to indicate a depth of depravity that shocks the sensibilities of the humane. That they are guilty of murder there can be no doubt. The case will be given to the jury to-night.

A CONVENT CASE.

Interesting Trial in Italy.

The Florence correspondent of the London News writes:—

"The Florence journals have quite overlooked a curious trial which took place ten days ago before the Tribunal of Correctional Police in their own city, and which had for result to condemn to twenty days' imprisonment Leopoldo Fabbroni, the agent of the Bible Society in Florence, his two brothers-in-law to the same term of imprisonment, a hackney coachman to eight days' imprisonment, and the wife of Fabbroni to one day
